Unwilling, unbendable, uncommitted

Dandam Dashagunam bhaveth

In the opinion of a thinker all that we see is not real (such as the mirror image of anyone who stands before the reflecting sheet of glass) and all that we hear is not true (maybe, such as reports in dailies, barring exceptions). From scholars we learn that Adi Shankara, the eighth century exponent of theology, propounded with his characteristic lucidity that everything in this world is unreal, read myth. While a section among those revelling in eloquence may toe the line of thinking attributed to the aforementioned unnamed thinker and Adi Shankara, lay people are sure to get confused between things real and things true. To digress from issues of real things of life and truth of what we hear, let us take a peek at voices in public domain oscillating between upholding the colonial rule over the country terminating in 1947 and berating the present self-rule over the past seven decades.

A national agency that goes by the name NITI (National Institution for Transforming India) is preoccupied in working on a blue print of sorts suggesting sets of action plan aimed at the Himalayan target of transforming the nation. The progress towards that target, happening in trickles, has already invited the criticism of seasoned analysts, however uncharitable their verdict may sound.

The nation being a democracy and government of the day having to function within the framework of the country's Constitution, the masses have no option other than complying with the provisions therein, under the vigil of the functionaries in the law-keeping wings of the government, namely the Police force and the law courts, read judiciary. There lies the catch. Successive governments to this day, since taking over the reins of governing the land and its people, have enacted laws voluminous to the extent of crossing the physical limits of anyone to make out what that cornucopia amounts to. While that limit to comprehend the country's laws flawlessly is the dubious strength of the lawyers and judges, together and separately, one cannot miss the growing numbers of street smart citizens who are living examples of the principle: *"Show me the man, I will show you the rule."

The nation, it must be admitted, has proved its staying power averting its disintegration so far. The question that looms large is: How long can it stay intact given the dominating influence of a major part of the population unwilling to comply with the laws, unbendable in its indiscipline behaviour and uncommitted to build a strong and vibrant India. The ancient prescription of using the stick (dandam dashagunam bhaveth) suggests itself.

Portraits on skeleton tree leaves

New Delhi: Most of us have trouble painting something decent on the largest of canvases, but true artists can unleash their talent on pretty much anything, even leaves. Case in point, Indian artist Sandesh S. Rangnekar, who paints detailed works of art on fragile skeleton Peepal leaves.

Rangnekar learned the ancient art of Peepal leaf painting from his father, acclaimed artist Sadashiv G. Rangnekar. Fascinated by his father's skills, Sandesh started learning this art when he was 10-years-old and slowly but steadily mastered the traditional art form.

Today, Sandesh S. Rangnekar is one of the few artists in India keeping the ancient art of peepal leaf painting alive. But while painting on delicate leaves is in itself very impressive, the level of detail achieved by Sandesh in most of his pieces is nothing short of breathtaking.

Napping Exercise to combat exhaustion

London: Climbing into a bed and just dozing off for 45 Min doesn't sound like the kind of thing you'd expect to be doing in a gym, but one UK fitness club claims that its "napercise" classes can help exhausted parents better deal with their hectic daily lives by regenerating the mind, body and even burning a few calories.

In an effort to promote the benefits of sleep and boost people's mental and physical well being, David Lloyd Club, which operates dozens of gyms and fitness clubs throughout Europe, recently launched a "napercise class" that invites people to get 45 minutes of shut-eye. Napercise classes consist of a 15-minute gentle stretching session and 45 minutes of blissful sleeping. Participants are guided to their single beds, which come equipped with blankets and eye masks, and get to fall asleep to relaxing "atmospheric" sounds. The temperature of the room in which the napercising takes place supposedly promotes calorie burning during sleep, so you'll be getting some of the benefits of traditional fitness.

Do tiny creatures live in my eyebrows?

Yes, eyebrow mites live and breed in our eyebrows, eyelashes and nose hairs. Two dozen mites can live in a single eyebrow hair follicle. About 1/3 millimetre in length, they have 8 short legs that allow them to crawl among your eyebrow hairs. By age 60, you may have between 1,000 and 2,000 mites living on your face.

VOICE OF THE READER

Is Rs. 10 coin in circulation or not?

Sir,

The circulation of Rs. 10 coins is testing the patience of people. RBI guidelines state that there is no ban on coins but commercially it is not even accepted by Government/Private Banks, Railway Station, bus services or anyone.

When note ban was effected since November 2016, the banks could not provide required denominations in sufficient way and even disposed coins of Rs. 10 in plastic sealed covers like 100/200 numbers with year sealed 2016. After some WhatsApp message/ posts, there's a lot of confusion in the market. Even after media intervention and special programmes telecast on TV, there is not much acceptance from any government service sectors or market business people for give and take of coins.

Hence, I request the media to highlight the problem and help the general public in circulation of the coins held with everyone.

I also request our largest transport providers like Railways, KSRTC and BMTC to accept Rs. 10 coins from the commuters. The government should also issue strict orders in this regard and help the people.

Obituary

Kechettira C. Ganapathy

Suspend RCs of sound polluting vehicles: Transport Commissioner

State Transport Commissioner B. Dayananda chairing a review meeting of the district-level RTOs and ARTOs of Mysuru, Chamarajanagar, Hassan, Kodagu and Mandya, in city yesterday.

Mysuru, May 9 (RK&NNN)- State Transport Commissioner B. Dayananda warned that if the vehicles' silencers are modified then the RCs of such vehicles will be suspended.

He was chairing a review meeting of the district-level RTOs and ARTOs of Mysuru, Chamarajanagar, Hassan, Kodagu and Mandya, here yesterday, for the first time in Mysuru at RTO West, after assuming office and said a few youth were modifying the silencers of their cars and two-wheelers. By driving or riding such vehicles with modified silencers, they were creating sound pollution. This also resulted in causing accidents and the noise level is so high that it is disturbing the peace of children, elders and the patients.

He directed the officers to confiscate such vehicles from the owners under the Motor Vehicles Act and suspend their RCs.

Dayananda asked the officers to strictly follow the rules while issuing DLs (Driving Licence) and FCs (Fitness Certificate) and whatever service the public demands should be catered to. The middlemen should not be entertained in the offices, he said.

He also asked the officials to follow the recommendations of the Police Department in taking strict action against violators of the traffic rules like signal-jumping.

Appreciating the achievement of the Transport Department in revenue collection as it had exceeded the target of Rs. 381 crore and collected Rs. 424 crore, he said that the region has achieved 111 percent collection in the financial year 2016-17. The Commissioner called upon the officers to keep up the good work.

He disclosed that the Government had appointed 11 RTOs and the vacant posts of Motor Vehicle Inspectors would also be filled up shortly through KPSC selection.

Meanwhile, the members of Jana Sangrama Parishat submitted a memorandum to the Commissioner highlighting the dangers posed by the tipper lorries in and around KRS in Srirangapatna taluk.

The State General Secretary Prasanna and Zonal Secretary Nagarle Vijaykumar, who submitted the memorandum, alleged that every day around 500 tipper lorries carry stones, sand and jalli from Pandavapura, Baby Betta, KRS Dam, Kaveripura and take it to Bengaluru. This has resulted in the weakening of the new bridge constructed near KRS dam.

The roads surrounding the villages in KRS, Railway Station Road, Hosahundi-Yelwal Road and Pandavapura's rural roads are completely damaged because of the movement of the tipper lorries, they said.

Dayananda, responding to the complaints, asked the Mysuru and Mandya Police Joint Commissioner to take necessary action.

Benami transactions
Plaint against CM's son

Bengaluru, May 9- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah's son Dr. Yathindra Siddharamaiah, who is hogging headlines for acting on behalf his father in Varuna constituency, is in trouble again.

A complaint against him has been filed in Income Tax Department for allegedly holding benami properties worth crores of rupees.

Complainant Varthur Kanakadasa has filed case against Dr. Yathindra claiming that Chief Minister's son was allegedly in possession of illegal properties including the Matrix Imaging Solutions. The complainant has requested for investigation and prosecution under the Benami Property Transaction Act, 1988.

"Dr. Yathindra, Equity Share Holder and former Director of M/s Matrix Imaging Solutions Private Limited, Bengaluru, is a doctor by profession and is presently having several diagnostic centres in Bengaluru and Mumbai, carrying out business in the name of Y.S. Prasiddh Diagnostics. He is also the major shareholder of M/s Matrix Imaging Solutions Private Limited. Dr. Yathindra and the said firm has made several benami transactions worth hundreds of crores in the names of his benamis — one Chirthahalli Mudalagiriyappa Rajesh Gowda and Malagonahally Uddappa Thejaswini — both of whom are presently Directors of the company," the complainant alleged.

"Very frequently, there have been many trips to foreign nations by these three people for transferring of the money in offshore accounts and from there the money is again routed back to India in the form of setting up of Medical Tourism Business and all the ill-gotten wealth has become clean donations for development of the diagnostics centres in India, especially in Bengaluru and Mumbai," the complainant alleged.

Madhu

Devaraj

Sundaresh

Mysuru, May 9 (US&SP)- Two Police Personnel have played good Samaritans by providing timely help to a person who reportedly collapsed on the road while riding on a scooter in city yesterday.

BSY asks aspirants not to eye tickets

Mysuru, May 9 (SPN&DM)- State BJP Chief B.S. Yeddyurappa has asked the party ticket aspirants not to compete with each other right now for getting the party ticket in 2018 Assembly poll.

Speaking at the State BJP Executive Meet here recently, Yeddyurappa cautioned party workers against groupism or factionalism.

Calling upon the party workers to take on the Government at booth level, he stressed on the need for maintaining unity in order to win the 2018 Assembly poll.

Stating that the party will launch 'Parivartana Yatra' from Tumakuru on May 18, he exhorted the party workers to show unity when the Yatra arrives in their respective district.

Reiterating his caution that ticket aspirants should not vie with each other for getting the party ticket, Yeddyurappa said that the party central leadership will distribute tickets after conducting a survey in every Assembly segment.

Referring to CM Siddharamaiah's remark that BJP leaders had little knowledge about tackling drought, BSY said that he would not like to reply to the CM's remark, which he said was an irresponsible statement.

China's take-over of the South China Sea is complete; a summit next week clinches its strategic gains

Point of VIEW

T.J.S. George

China's attitude to India has changed, too. It seems to have concluded that India is no longer the serious competitor it once appeared to be.

A week from today "the biggest diplomatic event of the year" will take place in China with many heads of government in attendance (not India's). This is the first summit of Xi Jinping's prestigious signature project — the One Belt One Road (OBOR) enterprise to build a network of Railways, Ports and Powergrids linking Asia, Africa and Europe.

The sheer sweep of the concept — shall we say, the daring — is a proclamation of China's ambitions. We will miss the big message underlying the big idea if we see OBOR in isolation. It is part of an awakening that has transformed China into the world's second most powerful country, poised to overtake the first. The economic muscle that is being built through projects like OBOR is but an extension of the military and strategic muscles that are continuously being strengthened.

Consider the South China Sea. Large portions of this expanse constitute the territorial waters of Vietnam, Malaysia, Philippines and Indonesia. Early on they had protested against China's aggressive moves. The Philippines even went to the International Court which ruled in its favour. China ignored it all and went on strengthening sandbanks, filling up shoals, laying airstrips.

American military sources now say that "hundreds" of surface-to-air missiles are being set up in the now militarised islands. Australian experts have said it is too late to challenge China. Philippine President advised his fellow Southeast Asian leaders to reconcile to the fait accompli. Without firing a shot, China has taken over an ocean and turned a half dozen littoral States into virtual satellites.

China's second aircraft carrier was launched last month, built in China at what is described as amazing speed.

(India's second carrier being built at Kochi is eight years behind schedule). China has announced that six more carriers are being built, two to be deployed permanently in the Indian Ocean. Note, too, that China has taken over Gwadar Port in Pakistan and has set up a military base in Djibouti's Port in the Gulf of Aden. It's clear that China's status as a naval power in the Indian Ocean and Asia-Pacific region is already formidable, and steadily becoming more so.

Add to this the headway China has made in strategic alliances. It has significantly improved its relations with Russia, leading to a China-Russia-Pakistan economic partnership. What is interesting here is that Russia was a close ally of India for a long period during which it had kept Pakistan at a distance. The strategic balance of the whole region changed following India's decision to cultivate America in preference to Russia. What has India gained?

Pakistan is today an integral part of Southeast Asian geopolitics as shaped by China and Russia while America's Asia pivot policy of which India was to be a central component has evaporated. Unpredictable as Trump's America is, the State Department said last week that China would be America's highest priority in Asia.

China's attitude to India has changed, too. It seems to have concluded that India is no longer the serious competitor it once appeared to be. On the OBOR issue China officially stated that "India will have a representative." (Perhaps a middle rank diplomat or businessman). The Chinese media, however, felt no need to be diplomatic. It said Delhi would be isolated and embarrassed by its stand, that Russia and Iran are "seeking to join the China-Pakistan Economic Corridor which will put India in a more awkward position."

Iran was initially most interested in building relations with India. Given Shia Iran's problems with Baluchistan, close ties with Tehran should have been a strategic (besides economic) priority for India. But our responses were tardy. Iran has since moved away to the warmer China-Pakistan-Russia partnership. Yet another pointer to the altered situation is India's apparent loss of interest in the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation. There was a time when India was eager to get full membership. In another month, formalisation of full membership, along with Pakistan's, is to be processed. Despite the fact that this is part of the profound realignments that are taking place in Eurasia, India is sulking.

Even in Sri Lanka, when a project was drawn up for India to develop Trincomalee, local protests became so powerful that the idea had to be dropped. At the same time China is building a massive new port in the country's capital itself, adjacent to the existing Colombo Port.

Somewhere we've done something not good. Who will find out? Who will take remedial measures? Who will bell the cat?

City to get its first flyover in Feb. 2018

Out of the four proposed grade separators, only one will be a reality

Mysuru, May 9 (RK&BCT)- Mysuru city will get its first flyover (grade separator) in 10 months and works are on in full swing. (A flyover, also called overpass, is a bridge, road or a similar structure that crosses over another road or Railway. An overpass and underpass (tunnel) together form a grade separation – see photo).

The grade separator is being constructed on Hunsur-Mysuru Highway near Hinkal by the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) and is scheduled to be opened by February 2018.

Once completed, the grade separator on this stretch that connects Mysuru, Kodagu, Kerala, Hassan and Mangaluru will ensure the smooth passage of thousands of vehicles every day without any bottlenecks. The new facility will also boost tourism. The grade separator is being constructed at a cost of Rs. 19.83 crore.

In 2014, four grade separators were approved for the city under the Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission (JnNURM). It was then felt that the grade separators were necessary to ease traffic congestion due to the upgradation of the Outer Ring Road from two-lane to six-lane. The projects were subsequently approved by the Central Steering and Monitoring Committee.

The grade separators were planned at Outer Ring Road (ORR) junction on Bengaluru-Mysuru Road near Columbia Asia Hospital; at Mysuru-KRS Road ORR junction near Hotel Royal Inn; at Mysuru-Hunsur Road ORR junction in Hinkal and at Mysuru-Nanjangud Road JSS College Junction near Yelethota.

However, out of the four grade separators, only the Hunsur Road grade separator will be a reality now. The flyover that was proposed at KRS Road Junction faced a technical snag as the road descends too close to the Mysuru-Hassan Railway track and hence has to be realigned or dropped.

The grade separator that was planned on Bengaluru-Mysuru Highway near Columbia Asia Hospital was also dropped as the State Government has planned to widen the existing 6-lane road. Likewise, the grade separator on Mysuru-Nanjangud Road was dropped as there is a dispute over the land that belonged to the erstwhile Maharajas.

The Hunsur Road grade separator was approved by the State Government in 2016 and the works were initiated in July. As per the plans, 60 percent of the funding for the construction is being done by the Centre, 30 percent is being funded by the State Government and 10 percent of the cost is being borne by MUDA.

The 5.5 metre grade separator begins from Hinkal Tent till Grand Maurya Hotel and the work contract has been handed over to PJB Engineering Private Limited, based in Bengaluru. 40 percent of the works have already been completed.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, MUDA Assistant Executive Engineer (JnNURM) Mahesh said that the works were delayed due to the shifting of drinking water and underground pipeline works of Mysuru City Corporation and Hinkal Gram Panchayat. "The laying of service roads on either side has been completed and pillars have been laid at the middle. The remaining 60 percent of the works will be completed by Feb. 2018," he said.

Once the four-lane grade separator is constructed, commuters need not wait for the Hinkal Junction traffic signal and can proceed towards Columbia Asia Hospital on one side and towards Bogadi on the other side. Vehicles proceeding from Mysuru towards Hunsur and those vehicles coming from Hunsur to Mysuru can go above the grade separator without any interruption.

On the grade separator, there will be two separate lanes for vehicles coming towards Mysuru from Hunsur and for the vehicles proceeding towards Hunsur from Mysuru. The lanes will be separated by road dividers and there will be service roads on either side below the grade separator, Mahesh added.

Once the four-lane grade separator is constructed, commuters need not wait for the Hinkal Junction traffic signal and can proceed towards Columbia Asia Hospital on one side and towards Bogadi on the other side. Vehicles proceeding from Mysuru towards Hunsur and those vehicles coming from Hunsur to Mysuru can go above the grade separator without any interruption.

Our Chief Minister's brand-new-look helicopter, after all, is not new!

Mysuru, May 9 (NNN)- Did the helicopter company which charters helicopters to VIPs and VVIPs in the State, charter a brand new helicopter for Chief Minster Siddharamaiah to fly him yesterday to Mysuru?

The rumours doing the rounds are, since an eagle had hit the helicopter in which the CM was flying recently and he had escaped from danger nothing was done about it. A few days later another helicopter had dropped Siddharamaiah at the Mysuru helipad and then while carrying Ministers D.K. Shivakumar and M.B. Patil had to do an emergency landing because of adverse weather conditions.

With two incidents in succession, the team in charge of the helicopter, it is said, decided to hire a brand new modern multi-coloured helicopter with all safety measures incorporated. When the CM landed yesterday in this helicopter, it caught everyone's attention.

But, is it a new helicopter? When Star of Mysore spoke to one of the persons of the company from which the helicopters are hired for the CM and other VIPs, he said on condition of anonymity that all these were mere media speculations. "We have three models — Bel 429, Augusta 109 both 2013-14 make-- and the recent one in which the CM flew — EC 135, 2014 model, a French make. All the helicopters are fitted with all safety features and we have had no problems so far."

These are multi-engine helicopters and meet all the criteria for carrying CM and other VIPs. The problems arise only if they are 15 to 20 year old machines. We do not have them, as our main concern is the safety of the people whom we carry, he said.

Meanwhile, a top ranking official in the Telengana Government whom Star of Mysore happened to speak to this morning said: "The VIP safety is of paramount importance. In States like Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh and Telengana there are dedicated teams handling helicopter travel by VVIPs. We check the credibility of the crew and their credentials. Unfortunately, from what I have seen this is not there in Karnataka and as a result there is confusion."

As long as Siddharamaiah, a proclaimed atheist and rationalist continues to visit temples and offers prayers, contrary to his belief, the media and the people will have a field day watching every step of his and rumours start flying when a crow lands on the rear view mirror of his official car and another crow's droppings land on his spotless white kurta and the eagle hits the helicopter, he is flying.

Pay fee at counter to perform Chandika Homa atop Chamundi Hill

Chamundi Hill Gram Panchayat urges DC to permit them to collect toll

Mysuru, May 9 (MTY&BCT)- Devotees henceforth planning to conduct Nava/ Shatha Chandika Homa atop the Chamundi Hill can do the same by registering online or by paying the fee at the temple counter. Hitherto, the devotees had to contact the priests for the homas and the Muzarai Temple was getting just Rs. 3,000 per homa.

This was decided at a meeting held yesterday that was chaired by Deputy Commissioner D. Randeep, district officers, Chamundi Hill Gram Panchayat authorities and KSRTC officials.

In view of some complaints, the temple itself has decided to conduct it in order to bring in transparency. Mass Chandika Homa by a group of 5 will cost Rs. 12,000 each, while individual Chandika Homa will cost Rs. 35,000. The dates of Chandika Homa will be announced on the temple website. It has been decided to construct another Homa Kunda in the portico on the west of the temple.

At the meeting, officials from the Chamundi Hill Gram Panchayat authorities urged the DC to allow them to levy toll from the vehicles visiting the Hill. They said that toll will help the Panchayat to boost revenue. They said that though there was a provision for the Panchayat to collect toll, it was not permitted to do so.

DC D. Randeep along with other officials at Chamundi Hill here yesterday.

DIRECT BUSES

The KSRTC will operate direct buses from some of the important areas of the city to Chamundi Hill. Since the last few years, the KSRTC was operating free buses from Lalitha Mahal Helipad to Chamundi Hill on festival days and Dasara. However, this saw thousands of vehicles finding their way to the helipad leading to parking problems and traffic jams.

In order to avoid such a situation, the DC asked the KSRTC to operate direct buses from certain important parts of the city like Kuvempunagar and Bannimantap. Depending on the response, more areas will be included. However, the KSRTC officials have clarified that the direct buses will not offer free services and passengers will be charged at a reasonable rate.

The KSRTC will continue to operate from Lalitha Mahal helipad on four Ashaada Fridays and on Chamundeshwari Vardhanti and over 25 buses will be deployed for the purpose.

Pendals, drinking water and toilets will be set up at the helipad and private vehicles will not be allowed atop the hill during these days. Barricades will be set up to control the crowd, the DC informed.

DFRL open to public on May 11

Mysuru, May 9- One of city's première institutes Defence Food Research Laboratory (DFRL) will be open to public on May 11 on the occasion of 'National Technology Day' celebrations.

DFRL has also organised an exhibition for the public showcasing the recently developed products and technologies in the laboratory. The expo, which is open from 10 am to 4 pm, will be inaugurated by DFRL Director Dr. Rakesh Kumar Sharma. This will be followed by signing of MoU for Technology transfer of 10 products/processes to private companies at the seminar hall at 11 am.

Justice Karnan sentenced to jail
SC orders immediate arrest

The top Court also ordered the media to keep away from reporting anything on Justice Karnan. Karnan's arrest orders came a day after he sentenced Chief Justice of India J.S. Khehar and six other judges of the Supreme Court to five years in jail under the SC /ST Act.

The SC called this order the "gravest form of contempt" and Karnan's offence as "grave and serious."

The controversy began in January when Karnan wrote to Prime Minister Narendra Modi to order an investigation against judges of the Madras High Court and the apex court of corruption.

On February 8, the Supreme Court found him in contempt, a first for a high court judge in the country. He was asked for an explanation but he repeatedly ignored the orders of the court. On March 10, the Court issued a bailable warrant and took away judicial work from him.

He rejected the warrant and accused his colleagues and seniors of caste bias, saying he was being singled out for being a Dalit. This was followed by a string of tit-for-tat orders by the top Court and Karnan, who remained defiant and continued to address the press and issuing diktats from his Kolkata home.

Earlier this month, the SC ordered Karnan to appear before a medical Board for a mental health evaluation but the 61-year-old judge refused to comply.

I was humiliated by CM, laments Vishwanath

Former Minister A.H. Vishwanath meets State Congress in-charge K.C. Venugopal; submits four-page complaint against Siddharamaiah

Bengaluru, May 9 (KMS&BCT)- A day after newly-appointed All India Congress Committee (AICC) General Secretary in-charge of Karnataka K.C. Venugopal declared that the aim of Congress is to stop the BJP from coming to power in the 2018 Assembly elections, he had to witness some embarrassing moments this morning as several party leaders complained to him about Chief Minister Siddharamaiah's style of functioning.

Venugopal, who is on a three-day visit to Karnataka after assuming charge on April 29, had to deal with the complaints against governance and party affairs. His very first visitor was former Minister A.H. Vishwanath who submitted a four-page complaint.

Vishwanath, who is known as a staunch critic of Congress party-led State Government in general and CM Siddharamaiah in particular, in his complaint, alleged that though he had been active in Congress since his student days, of late, he had been sidelined in the party by 'outsiders.'

"State Ministers and KPCC leaders are enjoying the power instead of serving the people. Party has no hopes in 2018 Assembly elections," he wrote to Venugopal, according to sources.

"I was humiliated by Siddharamaiah on several occasions and he has insulted me. If I am on the verge of quitting Congress, it is because of Siddharamaiah's attitude," Vishwanath is learnt to have said. Sources also said that Vishwanath urged Venugopal to stay in the State for a few more days and replace both the CM and KPCC President Dr. G. Parameshwara with original Congress leaders like Mallikarjuna Kharge.

Apart from Vishwanath, many KPCC office-bearers and District Congress Committee (DCC) Presidents are learnt to have complained against the style of functioning of Siddharamaiah and Dr. Parameshwara. The Government has not been co-operating with Congress workers and Parameshwara is ignoring such issues as he is part of Siddharamaiah's Cabinet, they reportedly said.

Many DCC Presidents and KPCC office-bearers have also told Venugopal that Parameshwara has not been able to function effectively as KPCC Chief due to his Ministerial responsibilities. Some of them even complained that the Chief Minister is giving priority to only certain communities and neglecting others.

Youth force in State

The AICC has given top priority for strengthening the party from the grassroot level. It has also mooted a youth force to lure young voters and win the 2018 polls by making a united effort.

Meanwhile, Venugopal is likely to take a house on rent in Bengaluru as he has decided to visit the State frequently till 2018 polls.

Sources in the Congress said that the party is looking for an independent house for Venugopal, so that he can use it as his home-office. Besides, Venugopal is planning to set up what is called as 'war room' to prepare the party for the 2018 polls, sources added.

Water War begins in MCC

Even as JD(S) corporator Kempanna entered the Council Hall and saw the Mayor and the MLA having a light-hearted discussion, he flared up and started shouting at them. "When people are venting their ire and taking the corporators to task, why the meeting should be held here instead of the respective wards," he asked in a raised voice.

As tempers flared, Kempanna went to the extent of threatening that he would pour petrol on the water tank in Kuvempunagar and set it on fire. "I am even ready to go to jail for such an act. What are the authorities doing," he questioned.

Meanwhile, Jagadish from Congress of Ward 22, and a supporter of MLA Somashekar spoke against Kempanna and as tempers flew they almost came to blows. This commotion lasted for almost half-an-hour.

Kempanna wondered how a tank filled with 15 lakh litres of water could go dry in two hours. Asked about this, he charged that the reply given by the authorities was the water did not last long due to leakage.

However, after some time the corporators were found blaming the authorities for the water crisis.

Pumping of water

According to the last census, Mysuru City has a population of 11 lakh. But it does not include a few areas that have come up outside the Ring Road. If that also is included then it would go up to 15 lakh. The water requirement for a population of this size is 250 MLD but what is being supplied is 209 MLD.

Here is the breakup of the water pumped by various pumping stations and their capacity to pump: The Belagola Pumping Station can pump 52 MLD while it is pumping only 42 MLD, Hongalli Second Stage station can pump 36 MLD while it is pumping 24 MLD, Hongalli Third Stage station can pump 54 MLD, it is just pumping 36 MLD, Melapura station can pump up to 100 MLD but is just pumping 65 MLD and from Kabini while it is 60 MLD, it is pumping only 40 MLD.

A new pumping station has been installed at Bidaragodu in HD Kote taluk, 50 km from Kabini river. A pipeline has been drawn to the city, a distance of 25 km. In between this water is supplied to multi-village drinking water supply project also and to a few other surrounding villages.

The problem began on May 1, when there was no power supply for 11 hours which resulted in disruption of water supply. On May 2 and 3 it was restored but due to fluctuation in power, the problem again began from May 4, said the authorities at the meeting.

According to Vani Vilas Water Works Executive Engineer Kariappa, when it rained a few days back a tree had fallen and the Cescom officials were taking time to restore the power supply.

Finally, as tempers cooled down, it was decided that (1) additional pumps will be installed at all pumping stations (2) sending proposals to the State Government and (3) where there are borewells to replenish them to draw water and supply it to the localities.

Additional Commissioner Raju, Superintending Engineer Suresh Babu, Executive Engineer of Water Supply Anand, Executive Engineer Manjunath, engineer Shivanna and others were present.

Ramanavami Sangeethotsava by Sri Ramabhyudaya Sabha

Well-received music concerts

By M.L. Krishnaswami

Vid. Ananthapadmanbhan, accompanied by Vid. Ananda Koushal on veena, Vid. Patri Satish Kumar on mridanga and Vid. Rajan on morching, is seen presenting a music concert.

On the ninth of April, the vocal artiste was Vid. Sikkil Gurucharan, a grandchild of one of the famous flautists of yesteryears, Sikkil Sisters. He was accompanied on violin by Vid. Mathur Srinidhi, on mridanga by Vid. Patri Satish Kumar and on khanjira by Vid. Guruprasanna.

Vid. Gurucharan is almost an annual number in one or the other Sabha in Mysuru for the Ramanavami festival and every year he has shown a remarkable improvement in his performance thus graduating himself to the top number in the fraternity.

In earlier days, musicians would start their repertory with a quick varnam in any raga and invariably the main raga for RTP would be in the same raga. That was the practice with the ever great Ariyakudi, Chembai and GNB. But nowadays, this has been given a go by and in some cases even the Varnam is omitted and the recital is started with a short alapana followed by a number. Times have changed and in many instances even the alapana and the following Keertana are in different ragas. I do not know whether this is a good trend in the development of Karnatak Music. This observation apart. Sikkil Gurucharan strictly adheres to the earlier code except in the end of his concert he sang the pallavi of the famous Tyagaraja number Chakkani raja, while the raga was Natakuranji, a little avoidable deviation, Okay!

Natakuranji, a sweet raga, was excellently handled in the alapana portion and violinist Mathur Srinidhi efficiently handled his assignment with quiet and calm. In this, he resembles the famous Papa Venkataramaiah of the by gone music days.

Vid. Patri has established himself as a master in his assignment as a mridanga accompanist and the way he quietly and smilingly handles the same instrument reminds us, the connoisseurs of an earlier era, of the famous Palghat Mani Iyer. Vid. Patri easily stole the show. His Tanyavartanam stands out as the best in the series. Vid. Guruprasanna on khanjira was adequate in handling the small musical instrument in one hand and bringing out right notes. Khanjira is a rather difficult instrument as the stroking is done with one hand and the instrument is firmly held in the other.

Vid. Gurucharan included in his assignment Mamava Pattabhi Rama of Thyagarja in 'Manirangu' raga well delivered. Another number was in Malayamarutha raga, Adi. His pallavi rendering was superb in its own way, including Dhanyasi and getting back to the original Kriti 'Chakkani raja' in 'Karaharapriya.' This sounds a little out of the way but as the output was superb within the boundary of the kriti and raga, this deviation, a new experiment may be ignored and a very wide applause followed from the rasikas gathered.

The sixth programme in the series on Apr. 10 was a rare Veena Recital by Vid. Anantha-padmanbhan from Trichur in Kerala, a well-known stalwart in his own right. Age has not detterd his spirits in handling this ancient instrument (the origin is credited to Goddess Saraswathi). He was accompanied on the second veena by his son Vid. Ananda Koushal, who works in Bengaluru as a Software Engineer. Other known noted examples are our own Pattabhi Rama Pandit and Saketh Ram, both of whom are Senior Engineers in the Software sector. This apart, the accompanying artistes were Vid. Patri Satish Kumar on mridanga and Vid. Rajan on morching.

Both father and son appear like ordinary folks and do not flaunt any air of highly talented musicians in their own right. This is a rare quality in the present age and what a wonderful output they gave in their recital. Mysuru was once the cradle of veena in the days of the Maharajas what with such great stalwarts like Sheshanna, Subbanna, Venkatagiriyappa and Doreswamy Iyengar, all of the fondest memories.

A similar and wholesome recital came from the father-son duo, much to the enjoyment of the crowd of connoisseurs who sat through the concert even with a fifteen minute intervention (not in the recital) due to a heavy downpour.

'Charukeshi' raga seems to be the favourite of musicians this time and Anathapadmanabhan commenced his recital with this beautiful raga. It was a rare composition. 'Hamsadhwani followed with the famous 'VatapiGanapatim' and both the songs received full treatment. A short alapana in 'Charukeshi' and a detailed one in 'Hamsa Dhwani'. Vid. Patri had a field day on his mridanga and gave maximum and highly intelligent support to the main artistes, father and son.

He has undoubted command over his chosen instrument. Artistes like Vainika Vid. Ananthapadmanabhan and son went out elaborately in the swarprasthara of 'Hamsadhwani' and the output was superb.

'Entaveduko Oh Raghava' was the next number chosen by the Vainikas and the neraval for 'Satta Matrama…' was well received. A piece in raga 'Chakravaka' followed in brisk succession, to be followed by the popular Manaviyala Kinchara in raga 'Nalinakanthi' which was chosen for detailed delineation, very well rendered. 'Chakravaka' and 'Nalinakanthi' were really great treats for the discerning ear and the brief spell of thunder-shower, to a sweltering heat in the day, came as a soothing gift to the body and the ear of the connoisseur crowd. A number in raga 'Behag' followed and was fully enjoyed. The concert ended with a short Thillana.

A hundred thanks to Sri Himashu and Sri Ramabhyudaya Sabha for inviting this great veena artiste to give a recital under the Sabha banner.

Kings to take on Knight Riders

Mohali, May 9 - Kings XI Punjab will come up against Kolkata Knight Riders in the Match 49 of IPL 2017 at the IS Bindra Stadium in Mohali later today.

KXIP have a 5-6 win-loss record this season. They have not won more than two matches in a row this season, and the time has now come for them to better that performance. They need to win their remaining three matches if they hope to stay in the hunt for the playoffs. In their most-recent match, KXIP, despite posting 189 batting first, lost to the Gujarat Lions; Glenn Maxwell's boys were sloppy on the field and showed lack of match-awareness. KXIP will have to fill a huge void in their XI, with Hashim Amla parting ways with the team to join up with the South African national team. Amla is KXIP's leading run-getter and his absence could mean the team could revert to using Manan Vohra as opener.

The Kolkata Knight Riders must be riding high on confidence after their demolition of Royal Challengers Bangalore in their previous match. Powered by Sunil Narine's half-century, the joint-fastest half-century in the IPL, and his rollicking partnership with Chris Lynn, KKR chased down the target of 159 quite comfortably in 15.1 overs. KKR have one foot in the door for the playoffs, and the focus will now shift to confirming that playoff berth and also look to finishing the regular league season among the top two teams.

'Let BJP see their own back'

CM reacts to BJP's corruption charges against Congress

Mysuru, May 9 (SBD&DM)- Lashing out at BJP leaders for making corruption charges against the Congress, Chief Minister Siddharamaiah has asked the BJP leaders to see their own back on corruption and graft charges.

Speaking to press persons on his arrival at Lalith Mahal helipad to take part in a private function here yesterday, Siddharamaiah maintained that the BJP has no moral right to speak of corruption.

"The BJP leaders think that the people have forgotten that they had gone to jail on corruption charges. Everyone knows what they did when they were in power. There are many cases pending against them before the Supreme Court and Lokayukta," he said.

Noting that BJP leaders had made many such allegations and they were under the illusion of winning the by-polls, the CM said that the people of Nanjangud and Gundlupet gave them a good reply by voting for the Congress.

Rejecting Union Minister of State for Commerce Nirmala Sitharaman's allegation that Law and Order had collapsed in the State, the CM said that the Union Minister should not brand as lawless the State from which she had been elected to the Rajya Sabha.

Refuting MP Shobha Karandlaje's allegation that the drought relief funds released by the Centre had been misused, the CM said that she should not speak if she does not have correct information. Though the State Govt. had sought Rs. 4,702 crore for the failure of South West monsoon, the Centre released only Rs. 1,670 crore, he claimed and urged the BJP leaders to bring pressure on the Centre for the early release of drought relief funds, instead of making false allegations about the State Government's failure to handle drought. Stating that he was ready to release a white paper as sought by BJP leaders, he urged the BJP leaders to ask the Centre to release drought relief funds sought for failure of the last North-East monsoon in the State.

Dubbing the BJP as anti-reservation and anti-social justice, he asserted that the Dalits, Backward Classes and Minorities will not go with them.

No question of disbanding Sangolli Rayanna Brigade: Eshwarappa

Bengaluru, May 9 (KMS&DM)- Asserting that there was no question of disbanding Sangolli Rayanna Brigade, senior BJP leader K.S. Eshwarappa has lashed out at party MP Shobha Karandlaje for making a reference to the Brigade.

Eshwarappa, who is learnt to have spoken with his close associates after the 2-day State BJP Executive Meet which was held at Mysuru on May 6 and 7, said that the BJP had not received a setback anywhere because of Sangolli Rayanna Brigade.

Maintaining that the Brigade was working towards consolidating the Backward Class vote base in favour of the BJP, Eshwarappa reiterated that there was no question of halting the Brigade activities.

Expressing anguish over Shobha Karandlaje's remark that the Brigade would be disbanded as per Prime Minister Narendra Modi's wish, he maintained that the Brigade would not stop functioning if someone gives some statement.

Dismissing JD(S) State President Kumaraswamy's allegation that the BJP High Command had given a free-hand for Eshwarappa to carry on Brigade activities, Eshwarappa is said to have told his associates that BJP National President Amit Shah had given green signal for continuing the Brigade as a non-political entity.

Jeweller accused of running ponzi schemes

Constable suspended for supporting him and threatening other person

Mysuru, May 9 (RK&KS)- City Police Commissioner Dr. A. Subrahmanyeswara Rao, on May 5, has issued a Suspension Order to Metagalli Police Constable for supporting a jeweller and threatening a person over gold business.

The suspended Constable has been identified as C.S. Ravi Gowda, attached to Metagalli Police Station in city.

It is reported that the jeweller, identified as Manohar Singh of Manmandir Jewels at Lokamanya Tilak Nagar in Metagalli had allegedly cheated many people by floating many schemes and collecting money from the public and is already facing criminal charges against him. In the meantime, a business feud surfaced between Manohar Singh and one Sureshkumar Rawathar of Vijayanagar over gold business. Constable Ravigowda, who came to know about this, is said to have supported Manohar Singh and threatened Sureshkumar.

Sureshkumar, then lodged a complaint with City Police Sommissioner Dr. A. Subrahmanyeswara Rao, who sought a report from N.R. Sub-Division ACP and issued Suspension Order pending Departmental Enquiry.

Chief Minister dismisses allegations against son

Mysuru, May 9 (MTY&DM)- Dismissing charges of money-laundering and benami property transactions against his son Dr. Yathindra Siddharamaiah, Chief Minister Siddharamaiah has said that the complaint filed with the IT Department seeking a probe against his son was politically motivated. Speaking to press persons at his Ramakrishnanagar residence here this morning, the CM said that he had never heard the name of the complainant Varthur Kanakadasa, who is said to be an RTI activist.

Pointing out that his son Dr. Yathindra had travelled abroad only once, he wondered whether it was possible for a person to invest abroad on his/her first visit, while dismissing all charges made in the complaint against his son.

Replying to a question on the probable exit of senior Congress leader A.H. Vishwanath from the party, Siddharamaiah asserted that Vishwanath had not spoken to him and he too had not spoken to the former MP either.

When his attention was drawn to Vishwanath's allegations against his administration, the CM said that he would not comment on Vishwanath's remarks and added that the Congress High Command was monitoring his administration.

Announcing that he has convened an all-party meeting on Cauvery row at Bengaluru today, Siddharamaiah said that the meeting will discuss in depth all issues related to the Cauvery row.

Later, the CM received petitions and heard grievances from the public who had gathered in large numbers near his house to meet him. The CM, who gave a patient hearing to the people's grievances, directed the officials to look into the petitions and take spot decisions wherever possible.

The Police had a tough time in controlling the crowd, as people jostled to meet the CM. Thereafter, the CM left for Bengaluru from Lalitha Mahal helipad.

WORD OF THE DAY

Pusillanimous

Meaning: lacking courage or resolution; cowardly; faint-hearted; timid.
Origin: Early 15c., from Late Latin pusillanimis "having little courage" (used in Church Latin to translate Greek oligopsychos "small-souled"), from Latin pusillis "very weak, little" (diminutive of pullus "young animal;" see foal (n.)) + animus "spirit, courage"
Example: But on this issue of Haredi service his pusillanimous silence has been disappointing and self-defeating. - Get Creative For Yossi Falafel, Gil Troy - July 16, 2012

THE ODD WORD

Palaestra

Wrestling school; gymnasium

IDIOM OF THE DAY

Play it by ear

Meaning: Playing something by ear means that rather than sticking to a defined plan, you will see how things go and decide on a course of action as you go along.
Example: "What time shall we go shopping?" "Let's see how the weather looks and play it by ear."
Origin: This saying has its origins in music, as "playing something by ear" means to play music without reference to the notes on a page. This sense of the phrase dates back to the 16th century, but the present use only came into being in mid-20th century America, primarily referring to sports. These days, the expression has lost this focus on sports and can be used in any context.
